10.2 Dyne Research's Confidential Information: While working for Dyne Research, the Intern may come across, or be given, Dyne Research information that is confidential. This is information like customer lists, business strategies, research & development notes, and statistics about a website, including, but not limited to, information relating to development and plans, marketing strategies, finance, operations, systems, proprietary concepts, documentation, reports, data, specifications, computer software, source code, object code, flow charts, data, databases, inventions, know-how, trade secrets, customer lists, customer relationships, customer profiles, supplier lists, supplier relationships, supplier profiles, pricing, sales estimates, business plans and internal performance results relating to the past, present or future business activities, technical information, design, process, procedure, formula, or improvement and other private information.
